Buffaloes Host McMurry Indians Saturday Night

West Texas State College Buffalo fans will have an opportunity to see their home team in action here Saturday night when the Thundering Herd meets McMurry College in Buffalo Stadium. It will be the first home game of the season for the Buffs and could possibly be their first victory also.

The Buffs dropped their opener Saturday night when they met Texas Tech's Red Raiders in Lubbock's Jones Stadium. The West Texas State College Buffaloes and the McMurry Indians played last year on September 27 in Amarillo Stadium with the Buffaloes victorious by a score of 19-6.

Coach Frank Kimbrough's boys will be out for the same kind of victory again this year. The Buffs will also be trying to smooth their fur which was definitely rubbed the wrong way by the Tech squad who walloped them Saturday night 40-14.

Glen McGahey Funeral Held in Jamesport, Mo.

Glen McGahey, who had been a resident of Canyon from 1911 until December, 1952, died in Kansas City, Mo., on Wednesday, Sept. 16, after a few days illness after having been stricken with meningitis. He was buried at Jamesport, Mo., beside his father and mother and a brother that had preceded him in death.

Mr. McGahey was born 65 years ago in Warren County, Ill., and moved with his family to Jamesport, Mo., where he made his home before coming to Canyon.

He had been associated with Ray Cole in the service station business for 17 years prior to his retirement in August of 1952 when ill health caused him to give up active work. In December of 1952 he went to Yuma, Ariz., to make his home with his niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Priestley. He was improving in health and seemed free of worry when he decided to visit a while with his sister, Mrs. H. D. French, in Kansas City. He had planned to go from there to visit with his only other survivor, a brother, M. S. McGahey, of Falfurrias, Texas.

Mr. McGahey was a veteran of World War I, serving in France during that conflict.

County Is Listed In Target Area

Randall County and Amarillo were in the 70 "critical" areas listed throughout the United States on a basis of manufacturing importance and output and as a place where enemy atomic bombs if dropped over Texas would likely hit. Fifteen Texas cities headed the "critical" target list announced by the federal government.

Among the other places named were Fort Worth and Tarrant County, the home of Carswell Air Force Base and the transcontinental B-36, American atomic super-bomber; Houston, Texas' largest city, and Harris County, the county with largest population in Texas.

Amarillo and Randall County were listed in the 193 "target" areas throughout the United States. The list was published by the Federal Civil Defense Administration.

In addition to Amarillo, Potter and Randall counties, the list included Austin and Travis County; Beaumont, Port Arthur and all of Jefferson County; Corpus Christi and Nueces County; El Paso, city and county; Galveston, city and county; Laredo and Webb County; Lubbock, city and county; San Angelo, Tom Green County; San Antonio and Bexar County; Waco and McLennan County, and Wichita Falls and Wichita County.

A majority of Texas cities listed were in the vicinity of military bases. Industries accounted for the "70 critical target areas" on the list. These included areas with 40,000 or more employees in manufacturing plants.

Sheriff Cannot Excuse Jury Men

Sheriff L. S. Johnston and the members of his office have reported a number of people calling them trying to get excused from jury duty. In response to the sheriff's request, here is the procedure for getting selected for jury duty and the only way to get excused.

The sheriff has no authority to excuse anyone from jury duty who has been selected to serve. The judge in whose court the jurymen have been called must excuse the person for the excuse to be legal.

The jury list is supplied by the sheriff by the district clerk. The list is given the district clerk by the jury commission. When the job of notifying the persons selected comes down to the sheriff any excuse from duty is completely out of his hands. He only sends out notices that this particular person is selected as a jurymen.

If a person has an excuse he believes valid he should appear at the court designated in the notice and present that excuse to the judge. The decision of releasing or retaining him for jury duty is strictly up to the judge.

Arrest Man Here Potter County Robbery Charge

Bob Hooper, an AWOL service man, was recently picked up here and charged with robbery in Potter County. According to the information received by Sheriff L. S. Johnston, Hooper had been visiting a woman here. Under various pretenses he was borrowing her car and going to Amarillo and performing robberies, the sheriff said.

Upon being caught after one of the jobs Hooper was tried and given three years, but the sentence was suspended. The sheriff said that a few months ago the same thing happened. Hooper came here to visit the woman and drove to Amarillo once more.

This time the license number of the car was taken and traced. The woman denied any connection with the crimes. Hooper is being held in Potter County jail charged with burglary.

Fire Does Much Damage Sunday

Fire hit the Imperial Chevrolet Company Sunday evening, doing much damage to the building and stock of car parts.

Men had been working on a truck during the afternoon and had left the building before flames were discovered shooting from the doors and windows.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams, owners of the business, were in Skellytown at the time of the fire and were not advised of the conflagration until the flames had been extinguished.

The flames were confined to the work shop but water damage was spread throughout the building and the stock.

Insurance adjusters were on the job checking the damage Monday, but no announcement could be made either as to the loss or the possible remodeling of the building until the insurance adjusters had completed their work.

CROP Gets 24 Or 25 Beefs In Local Drive

Truett McGregor, chairman of the local CROP drive, reported yesterday that a total of 24 and possibly 25 head of cattle was raised locally for the Christian Rural Overseas Program. The one beef that is on the balance is the result of beef prices. Truett said he knew they had 24 head and that the money they had might purchase one more than they had thought to bring the total to 25.

Twenty-two head of beef were contributed and $176.95 in cash. The money was turned over to a committee to purchase beef with. They hope to get three beef from the money donated.

Contributors of cattle were the American Legion, 1; Barrett Ziegler Dairy 4; Parker & Whitlow, 1; Randall County Dairy Association, 1; E. A. Oberst, 1; and Sherwood Blasdel, 2. Twelve head were bought and delivered.

Organizations that contributed money included the First Baptist Church, First Methodist Church, Christian Church, Rotary Club, and Lions Club. In addition, more than 40 individuals also made cash donations.

Retiring Teachers Are Honored Board Institutes Service Award

Roland Black and Miss Sara Thompson honor Mrs. John Davis at P-TA meeting.

Dr. J. A. Hill and Mrs. Tommie Montfort present W. L. Vaughan to audience.

Two teachers attending the first fall meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association Thursday evening were completely surprised when Supt. Joe Gibson rose and called for four assistants to come forward and help him carry out a request of the Canyon School Board. The request was to honor, with the award of a gold pin for loyal service, the two retiring teachers, each of whom had spent more than 25 years in the service of the Canyon schools.

Awarded the honor were Mrs. John Davis and W. L. Vaughan. The presentation to Mrs. Davis was made by Roland Black, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, assisted by Miss Sara Thompson, teacher in West Texas Elementary School. Both are former students of Mrs. Davis. Mr. Black stressed her years of loyal, faithful service in the Canyon schools, her continued interest in the lives of her pupils, after their school days, and her usefulness in her community.

Martha Dixon Davis was a small girl when she came to Canyon with her father, the late Judge L. C. Lair, pioneer business and civic leader; and it was a small town she came to. She attended Canyon public schools from the first grade on to graduation from high school. After graduation she studied for two years at North Texas State Teachers College. Shortly after her return from Denton she was married to John Davis, of Canyon.

Mrs. Davis's summers were spent attending West Texas State Teachers College, from which institution she received the Bachelor's degree, majoring in mathematics. She then became a teacher of mathematics and science in the intermediate grades of Canyon Public School, which position she held continuously until her retirement.

Mrs. Davis received many honors during her career, among them, membership in Alpha Chi, national scholarship society, and in Delta Kappa Gamma, national honorary society for women teachers. She has served as president of the Randall County Unit of the Texas State Teachers Association; as first president of the Canyon Classroom Teachers organization; as secretary of AAUW, and of Delta Kappa Gamma; and was recently awarded life membership in the state P-TA. Mrs. Davis has always been very active in church work. It has been said that she has served in almost every official capacity in her church except that of pastor and deacon. At present she is president of the Woman's Missionary Union, and says she is enjoying her new leisure and opportunity for community activities.

Presenting the award to Mr. Vaughan was Dr. J. A. Hill, president emeritus of West Texas State College, assisted by Mrs. Tommie Montfort, of West Texas Junior High School, both co-workers with Mr. Vaughan during his career as critic teacher at West Texas State Demonstration School.

In making the presentation, Dr. Hill pointed out the joys and satisfaction of retirement from one's profession. The well-known educator was speaking from actual experience, since he has obviously found life most happy and satisfying, as well as remunerative, since his retirement five years ago. Dr. Hill cited Mr. Vaughan as a fine example of Christian living and an efficient teacher, adding that he loved children and children loved him.

Mr. Vaughan, a native of Greenville, received his college training at Seth Ward College, the University of Texas, where he was an "honor roller," and West Texas

Grand Jury Ends Friday, Returns 4 Indictments

Four indictments were returned by the Randall County grand jury which adjourned Friday evening. Sheriff L. S. Johnston said three of the indictments could be released as the persons in question were either in custody or out on bond.

One indictment was against Maye Johnson of Amarillo who is free on $1,500 bond. The indictment against her is to the offense of being an accomplice to the offense of burglary, a felony.

C. R. Crook was indicted for fondling, (contributing to the delinquency of a minor), a girl under 14 years of age.

The other indictment was against Clarence Minton. Minton is in the Amarillo jail at present and the charge against him is that of stealing chickens.

The crime that Maye Johnson is charged as an accomplice is the burglary of The Pharmacy here. The robbery occurred about April 11th of this year. W. O. Nelson is free under a five year suspended sentence for the same crime.

The fourth indictment was not revealed as the subject was not in custody at that time.

No Feed Program Orders Received In Randall County

The Drouth Emergency Feed Program for Randall county is being closed up for the present by the distribution of the last few cars of feed.

Most of the farmers who filed applications for feed during July and August received a 30 day supply of one or more of the feeds.

Randall county received 22 carloads of cottonseed meal and cottonseed cake, 12 carloads of oats, five carloads of corn and two cars of feed wheat.

There was a total of 324 individual livestock owners served by the program. The Drouth Committee approved just over 500 separate applications to purchase feed. About 275 farmers were supplied with more than one kind of feed and about 100 were furnished feed on the second 30 day period.

In all a total of 825 separate feed orders were issued. Each farmer who is approved for the feed now being distributed was mailed a notice to that effect. No new applications can be received since only a part of the applications already on file can be supplied.

No orders have been received locally to continue the feed program, as indicated during the past week in the daily press. If such renewal is received, the committee will give notice to the farmers who need feed.

High Wind Friday Does Much Damage

Crops on the South Plains were materially damaged by the high wind Friday night. The storm clouds passed west of Canyon, but kicked up a lot of dust and sand.

While the wind was rather mild and did no damage locally, this was not the case in all sections.

Plainview had a real blow; Hale Center had a heavy rainfall, together with high winds.

There was little rain in other sections of the South Plains.

Observers state that the cotton crop in this section is about normal, with a promising yield around Lubbock.

Architect Is Named by School

William C. Townes of Amarillo was selected as the architect for the proposed new school building to be erected in Canyon during the coming year. He will start to study the needs of the Canyon Independent School District and will submit plans for a new building in the near future.

A committee of 100 citizens studied plans for the new building for several weeks in the spring in order that the school district erect the type of building best fitted for future developments and growth of the district.

The Regents of West Texas State have ordered that the training school be removed from the present location on the campus by Sept. 1954 in order to make rooms available for college work.

Bonds have not been voted for the construction of the new building, but the project will be presented to the voters as soon as the type of building has been determined.

No Purge Likely Again Shivers Or Other Texas Democrats

We rather imagine that the high moguls of the Democratic party were listening when Governor Shivers spoke at Mineral Wells.

We have an idea that his declaration against any sort of purge of the wayward boys and girls of the South; those who bolted the Democratic ticket in 1952 and elected President Eisenhower, had something to do with the soft pedal which was applied at Chicago the following week.

At least former President Harry S. Truman was in Chicago; Adlai Stevenson was in Chicago; the big shots who followed the Stevenson ticket in 1952 were in Chicago.

It is noteworthy that Governor Shivers and a lot of the other wayward boys failed to show up.

Senator Lyndon Johnson, who voted for Stevenson and was rewarded by being elected minority leader of the Senate, was absent. His term of office expires next year, and Lyndon naturally wants to go back to the Senate. It was convenient for him to stay at home.

Senator Price Daniel was absent. He fought the Truman machine and won his place in the Senate in the same election that the Democrats of Texas were supporting Eisenhower.

Sam Rayburn was there from Texas, but he was not nearly so vocal as usual. Naturally Sam wants to go back to the House and would like to resume his seat as Speaker of the House. He will be careful how he talks in the future.

Governor Shivers laid it on the line when he defied the Democratic leaders to attempt to purge either him or any other person in Texas who voted for Eisenhower. The Governor knew that the powers that be could not get away with such tactics, and no one knew this fact better than those who are the political bosses of the Democratic party.

The Democrats of Texas are through wearing the brass collar just to please the Democrats of the North and East who have to cater to the Negro and foreign vote in order to hold their places of leadership.

We assure you that independence pays off in this political game. The time was when any man who hoped to win success must follow the decrees of the leaders, but that time is passed.

Even Truman and Stevenson have learned their lessons. They understand that they must please the voters, or go back to the woodshed where a sound paddling will be applied to them where it will do the most good.

Cabinet Trouble Starts to Plague Work of Eisenhower

The resignation of Secretary of Labor Martin P. Durkin will hardly upset the tranquillity of the Eisenhower administration in Washington.

As a matter of fact Durkin resigned to return to his old job which pays more money than the cabinet position. Durkin was the only Stevenson Democrat in the Eisenhower cabinet, and may have considered that he was sort of a lone wolf, fighting the battles of organized labor alone.

His declaration that he was promised certain concessions draws denials from those close to the President.

Again we are convinced that the question of politics caught the President rather unaware and unprepared to meet the impact. So far as Durkin is concerned, the nation will not suffer for long because of his return as head of the plumbers union. We have always heard that it does not pay to take yourself too seriously.

The North Star Comes Off the Press of The Canyon News

A new publication came from the press of The Canyon News last week. It is The North Star, published for the benefit of the people living within the corporate limits of Randall County in the city of Amarillo. The paper is distributed free to all within that area.

The new publication comes as the result of urging from the business men and citizens of that section of Randall County for a voice of their own. We have been asked to start the paper; so here it is—rearing and ready to go.

The name "Star" was selected by Lawrence Huncutt, editor, and the additional word North was added to designate the section of Randall County which the paper will serve.

No subscriptions are offered to the new publication at the present time, but when the list is opened, we shall be happy to add citizens living outside the corporate limits as readers of the new publication.

We Have No Political Party Affiliations—Good or Bad

"Oh, ho, you've forsaken your political party again," screamed a delighted Loyal Democrat. He referred to the criticism that he had read of the treatment of the farmers by the Republican "little men."

So far as The Canyon News is concerned, we have no political party to forsake. Truman and the Loyal Democrats ran off and left the remainder of the Democrats who wanted to see the party stay in the straight and narrow way.

Sure we voted for President Eisenhower, but we realized when we cast this vote that he was liable to be a flop as a President. He started out by selecting the biggest and best qualified persons for each job. Some of these biggest and best have turned out to be just ordinary little men, like the balance of us.

The fact that the Republicans have been out of power for 20 years, and there was a hungry bunch crowding to get a place at the feed trough is no assurance whatsoever that all of these persons will be honest and honorable. We figured that the bunch that Truman had surrounded himself with would soon lead the nation into bankruptcy if given a chance.

We were of the opinion that Eisenhower would try to put the brakes on, but if he failed, he would do no worse a job than the Truman bunch had been doing.

We criticized FDR when he wanted to become perpetual president; we criticized Truman when he surrounded himself with Missouri politicians; and we have not been so hot about the promises of Eisenhower, fully realizing that many of his promises have been blocked by the little men in public offices who do not want to work.

We started out on the program of being liberal in thought, action, and performance, and intend following this program, regardless of the political party which is in power.

We are not going to follow the example of that noted publisher, William Allen White, who bitterly criticized the Republican candidates one week, but was forced to back down and start the Republican candidates who were the nominees in spite of his wishes.

Republican Leaders Send a Check-Up Man Here Recently

We had a caller the other day. He introduced himself as a reformed Democrat who supported the Eisenhower ticket. He was looking for Republicans.

We had a hard time thinking of genuine Republican followers in Randall County, but advised that he would find a majority of all voters in every voting box of Randall County who were strong for the man, General Eisenhower.

Just what they will think of President Eisenhower by the time 1956 falls around is a horse of a different color. You understand that Americans are a pretty independent bunch. The thing which appeals to them one year does not suit them a bit in four years. Their idol of the present may not be their idol of the future. Just look at that great forgotten man, General MacArthur. He could hardly be classed as a first rate attraction under any condition, but he was a national hero when he came back home, fired from his job by President Truman.

The people may do the same thing to President Eisenhower in 1956. We are not predicting, merely observing what goes on year after year in this great nation of ours.

Sure Line of Achievement

He has achieved success who has lived well . . . laughed often . . . and loved much; who has gained the respect of intelligent men, and the love of little children; who has filled his niche and accomplished his task; who has left the world better than he found it—whether by an improved poppy . . . a perfect poem, or a rescued soul; who has never lacked appreciation of earth's beauty, or failed to express it; who has always looked for the best in others . . . and given the best he had; whose life was an inspiration; whose memory was a benediction.

Here's something from James and Cora Kelly's Stanton Reporter — from Snooter's column, some years back:

"OLD FOGY that I am, I still like to hear the ring of church and school bells. The abandonment of the church and school belfries, and the relegating of their bells to make room for modern civilization, has added an almost a grave-yard stillness on week-day and Sunday mornings. I tell you the ring of church and school bells was a symphonic melody to my ear. It made a fellow feel upon awakening on a Sunday morning and hearing the sound of bells pealing forth from the little countryside churches, he was glad he was alive.

You remember when a bell hung in the belfry of every church and school house. If they weren't in the belfry, they hung on stilts on the outside, and if there was no bell of this kind, then some one rang a hand bell. In those days some prominent hotel in the town supported a bell. By a prominent hotel, I mean the box-boarded structure, the cracks batted up by strips of boards . . . most of them you could throw a cat through. But the ringing of that old hotel bell did not only answer as a call to "come and get it," but it sent clerks, business men, and other scurrying to the noon-day meals. On farms and ranches, a bell was found that was rung to warn the hands that the meal hour was at hand. Even the lead cow and sheep had a bell hung to their necks, so the owner would know where to find his flock.

HIS TROUBLE!

An angry little man bounced into the postmaster's office and complained that, for some time he had been pestered by threatening letters.

"I certainly have," snapped the little man. "They are coming from those pesky income tax people."

The guest watched with amusement as the young son of the house amused himself by driving nails into the furniture. Recovering a bit from the shock, he turned to his host and asked: "Joe, isn't that an expensive pastime your son has? How can you afford it?"

"Oh, it's not bad," answered the father. "We get the nails wholesale."

"MISERABLE SINGERS"

"Mama," said the 6-year-old girl, "the people in the church this morning must have sung terribly."

CIGARETTES

Americans used a record total of almost 397,000,000 cigarettes during the 12 months period ended on June 30th, an increase of 3.5 per cent over last year, according to the Agriculture Department. Cigar smokers consumed about 6,000,000,000 stogies, also a gain of 3.5 per cent over last year. The output of both smoking tobacco and chewing tobacco fell.

NATIONAL PARKS

A total of 45,000,000 tourists visited America's national parks last year and the Park Service predicts that business this year will exceed last year's record intake of $30,000,000. Both the number of visitors and the gross business done by concessionaires in the 181 areas administered by the Park Service, including 28 parks, have grown rapidly during the past ten years.

BILLIONS UNSPENT

Figures released by Senator Harry F. Byrd of Va., showed that on May 31st, the Government had more than $111,900,000,000 in unspent money. Although some was paid out in June, Congress appropriated another $54,500,000,000, for the 12 months beginning July 1, so the new administration had more than $178,000,000,000 for use in the current fiscal year.

STATES TAXES

The 48 State governments collected a record total last year of $10,542,000,000 in taxes, or an average of $68.04 from every man, woman and child in this country. This was $685,000,000 more than was collected in the previous year according to the Census Bureau.

BOUND TO

The bicycle is bound to be more popular, what with the so-called cheaper models of automobiles crowding the $2,000 mark.

"Those are not statues," explained the American, "they are workmen busy on one of our government projects."

Vincent Friemel Owner of Mystery Farm No. 25

Mystery Farm No. 25, located eight miles west of Canyon on Highway 1062 is owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Friemel. They have owned this farm for 15 years, having bought it from W. A. and L. A. Warren.

Mr. Friemel and Miss Adalla Batenhorst were married Sept. 20, 1938. They are both members of St. Mary's Church, Umbarger. He is a member of the Farm Bureau, Co-op Elevator Company, Knights of Columbus, Council 2808, Past Grand Knight. Mrs. Friemel is an active member of the Altar Society. Irrigation is used to assure water for the crops. Mr. Friemel believes in deep plowing and rotation of crops as conservation and better farming practices.

They have been readers of The Canyon News for more than 25 years and have been subscribers for 15. He reaches for the front page and the classified ads, while Mrs. Friemel simply digests all of it.

Terraces showing so plainly in the photograph are not on the Friemel farm but are across the highway on the Jess Hicks farm.

Heavy Loss of Life Due to Fires in Texas

Six out of every 100,000 Texans will die in fires during the 12 months ending December 31, Norris W. Parker, manager of the Texas Insurance Advisory Association, said today.

Based on figures kept for the last 20 years on Texas fire losses, about 550 Texans will lose their lives in fires in 1953. Last year, the figure was 542, and it will be at least that this year, insurance company statisticians predict.

Unless Texans become more fire prevention conscious and quickly, the property loss this year also is expected to exceed 1952. Last year, $33,172,559 worth of Texas property went up in smoke—the highest in the state's history, excluding the Texas City disaster in 1947. By the end of this year, property loss may approach $40,000,000, Mr. Parker said.

The figures were announced by the fire insurance trade association to help encourage Texans to participate in National Fire Prevention Week, October 4-10.

Latest Rumors From Political Front of Nation

Thomas Dewey, New York Governor, was given first refusal of the Chief Justiceship of the U. S. left vacant by the death of Fred Vinson.

It turns out that the late Senator Robert Taft was right when he described as "incredible" the appointment of a Democratic labor leader to serve as Secretary of Labor in a Republican Cabinet. Martin Durkin, a Democrat, never was able to gear his thinking to the Republican viewpoint.

President Eisenhower would like to find a labor leader who does not think that the Taft-Hartley Act is so bad to serve as his next Secretary of Labor. The President is cooling off on the idea of broad changes in that Act.

There's a good deal more confidence around the White House about the way the political outlook is shaping both at home and abroad.

Mr. Eisenhower and his aides are taking the advice of Republican Senators never to use the words "hard money" to describe the objective of present credit policies. The term "honest dollar" is advocated instead. Politicians feared that Republicans would be tagged with favoring money that was hard to get.

The White House is beginning to get more warning of trouble signs in important lines of business. Moves to increase the supply of credit are being considered.

THE AMERICAN WAY

"Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness"

keeps playing a larger and larger role in White House councils. The President is counting rather heavily on Mr. Nixon to follow through on White House plans when they reach the Senate.

Senator William Knowland, Majority Leader in the Senate, is to have the help of Republican Senators—specialists in particular fields—when it comes to selling White House ideas in the next session of Congress. The conclusion is that no one man can fill the shoes of the late Senator Taft.

Ezra Benson, Secretary of Agriculture, is showing interest in a plan for supporting income of wheat farmers that would add another cent to the price of a loaf of bread. An indirect form of processing tax is involved that may be difficult to sell to Congress.

George Humphrey, Secretary of the Treasury, is trying to avoid locking horns again with Representative Dan Reed, chairman of the tax-writing Ways and Means Committee of the House. That's why Mr. Humphrey is getting touchy on the question of whether the Treasury will recommend a national sales tax. Mr. Reed is dead set against it.

Coleman Andrews, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, is telling Congressmen that he may start up the door-to-door canvass of taxpayer again, despite protests. He cites an old law that, in effect, orders such a canvass.

John Foster Dulles, Secretary of State, gambled on the outcome of the election in Germany and won. Mr. Dulles now gains much more freedom of maneuver in developing those of his policies that are not altogether to the liking of Britain and France.

Winston Churchill, Britain's Prime Minister, will have a harder time trying to play the balance-of-power game, which he knows so well, now that West Germany is lined up solidly on the U. S. side. Churchill suddenly finds there's really no role for a middleman to play by titing the balance.

Lester Pearson, who speaks for Canada on foreign-policy issues, is a bit surprised at the adverse U. S. reaction to his leadership of the move to rally nations against U. S. and for India in the set-up to talk about peace in Korea. Mr. Pearson has Canada lined up with those nations trying to get Communist China a seat in the United Nations.

Francisco Franco, Spain's dictator had to have assurances that there would be more dollars where the first ones came from before he would even get close to putting his name on the dotted line of an agreement giving U. S. rights to bases on Spanish territory. Spain is about to join the long line of nations with claim checks on the U. S. treasury.

TURKEYS

A recent survey, conducted by the Agriculture Department, reveals that 55,746,000 turkeys were being raised as of August 1st, a decline of 11 per cent in small varieties and of 7 per cent in large varieties from 1952. Production is below that of last year in all sections of the U. S. except in the North Central states where it increased about 1 per cent.

HOME OWNERS

According to a Federal Reserve Board survey, one veteran family in ten was looking forward to buying a new home this year, compared with about one in 20 of the non-veteran families. Of all World War II veterans with families about 46 per cent owned their own homes early in 1953, the survey showed.

We all like to think we're good traders. And we're constantly on the lookout for bargains. Moreover, there are always a few items around any place that haven't been used for ages. Hence, we offer to trade our own white elephants for those that are gathering dust in someone else's attic.

That's probably why "For Sale or Trade" items and "Swap" columns are so popular in newspapers. But the way to enjoy a swap column most is by trying to visualize the situation that makes certain items suddenly become undesirable, others take on premium qualities in a household.

Tricycles for bicycles; a red dining suite for a good baby bed; outgrown clothes, still good or pretty, for a dishwasher or living room chair. These are sort of daily; the family has simply reached the next stage.

"Small electric range, to trade for matching bedspreads, in green or brown." The wife wants something new, maybe? But hasn't lived down the last mistake, so she offers to trade?

"Pressure cooker, automatic toaster and adjustable dress form, to trade for old dolls or materials for doll costuming." Now there's one to fire the imagination. Women are forever trying out new kitchen gadgets; sometimes they "fit," sometimes they don't. This woman used to sew. Now she's gone back to her old kitchen habits, and is turning her dressmaking skill toward dressing dolls.

If we had money to burn, and time on our hands, we'd like to open a swap shop, as big as all outdoors. There plain, garden variety traders could come and browse to their heart's content. And the only commission we'd exact would be the story of how they came to trade this thing in, why they want something else too much to give it up but too little to buy it outright.

Help Wanted: A Worker

NEWS LETTER

From Congressman WALTER ROGERS
of the 18th Congressional District

How Old Are Farm Programs?

Farm legislation providing for ways to bring agricultural production into line with demand, to provide incentives to increase production of commodities in short supply, and to protect farmers against ruinously low prices, are not peculiar to this generation.

As early as 1633 the "Grand Assembly" of Virginia at "James City" enacted a law to see that sufficiency of corn be planted. By 1632 they required two acres of corn per head to be planted and tended. These laws were repeated many times.

Moreover, the "Grand Assembly" passed laws to control tobacco production. These laws provided for acreage limitations, which in effect provided incentives for producers to shift from crops produced in excess of requirements to other specified commodities for which demand exceeded supplies.

The following wording of part of the preamble to a marketing order regulation before the Grand Assembly in 1666 seems as modern as 1952: "Whereas the quantity of tobacco made in this country by increase of the number of inhabitants employing themselves wholly to the making of that commodity, and the continued freedom of their unlimited planting has become so great that all markets have become glutted with it, and the value of it reduced to so low a rate that the planter is rendered incapable of subsisting, and the merchant discouraged in his trade." From 1645 through 1676 the Assembly passed numerous laws providing for export controls and export subsidies. Exports for a time were prohibited on corn, hides, leather, wool, and grain. Export duties and customs were lifted in 1655 on tobacco to encourage export of a surplus.

Price controls were also a part of this earlier legislation. In 1631-32 corn prices were fixed at not less than 16 shillings per barrel. The price of tobacco was set at not less than 6 pence per pound. In 1633 tobacco went under price ceilings, but by 1639 they returned to minimum prices again.

Recent Farmer Troubles

Farmers throughout the country have experienced various troubles this year. Most farm products have shared in the decline in farm prices. The index of prices received by farmers as of July 15, 1953, was 259 (1910-14 base 100), down about 12 per cent from July 15, 1952, index of 295.

During this same time the index of prices paid by farmers dropped less than 3 per cent, from 286 on July 15, 1952, to 278 on July 15, 1953.

During this past year the ration of prices received by farmers to prices paid dropped from 103 on July 15, 1952, to 93 on July 15, 1953. This is a decline of about 10 per cent. In other words, prices received by farmers for their products have declined more than prices paid for items used in production, interest, taxes and wage rates during the same period. To state the problem more simply, farm prices have been falling while farmers' costs in effect have been increasing.

Return To Washington

Mrs. Rogers and the children have returned to Washington and the children have re-entered school. I drove them to Memphis, Tenn., and turned the job over to Mrs. Rogers there. She always does a better job than I do, so they made it back to Washington all right. I came back to Amarillo and will be here until around the 25th of September. I will return to Washington for a short stay and be back in October.

Refreshments were furnished by Mrs. Erwin Meyer. Members present were Henry Meyer, Frankie Joe O'Donald, Ronnie Shepard, Richie Brotherton, Ronny Harris, and Eddie Pettitt. Meeting closed with the living circle, the law and promise, and a new den yell.

Keeps its value better than any other car!

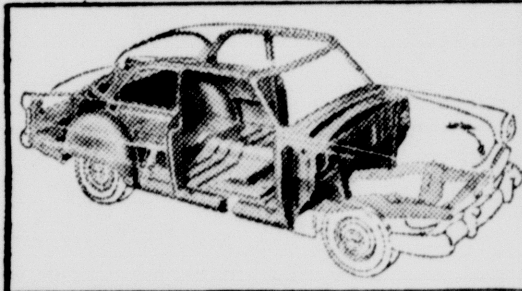

Used car dealers report that

Fords return more of their original cost than any other car—

and there are 41 reasons why:

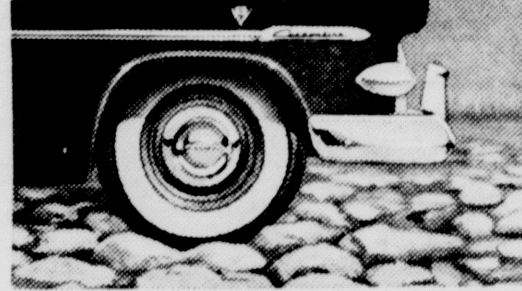

Take power. Ford's two high-compression engines are real leaders in their class. Ford's the only car in the low-price field to offer you the smooth power of a V-8 engine. And no other car in any field has so modern a Six.

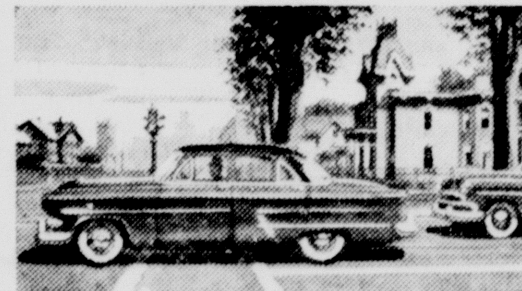

Take build. Ford's one-piece Crestmark body gives you style-setting beauty with rugged "build" underneath. Where many other cars are bolted, Fords are welded hull-tight to keep out rust-causing weather and dirt.

Take visibility. Ford gives you the "all-around" view you need in today's fast-moving traffic. A curved one-piece windshield, car-wide rear window and large "picture windows" all around make sure you have Full-Circle visibility.

Take ride. Ford's wonderful, new ride reduces front end road shock up to 80%. And Ford's new, more responsive spring and shock absorber action gives you the comfortable easy ride you want without gas-eating extra weight.

Take drives. Only Ford in its field gives you a choice of a completely automatic drive, Fordomatic, the finest, most versatile automatic you can buy... fuel-saving Overdrive... or easy-shifting Conventional Drive.

Take savings. Ford's economy-minded Automatic Power Pilot saves you money on every gallon of gas. It automatically adjusts carburetion, ignition and combustion to make every drop of gas ("regular" at that) work its heart out.

AUSTIN: Auto inspection stations are now ready to look over your car and issue a new sticker to replace the old one on your windshield.

You have until next April 15 to get the inspection made, but after that you'll be subject to a fine if the sticker is not in place. It's a pretty, little job, printed in gold and cut in the shape of Texas.

The new auto inspection law is not as tough as the old one (which was not enforced), but you must have the right kind of lights, horn, brakes, and windshield wipers.

It doesn't matter about your steering gear. As far as the inspection law is concerned, it's all right if the guiding apparatus goes out of whack and you crash at the next intersection.

PLANS PROGRESSED for erecting tourist facilities in Inks Lake Park near Burnet and Marble Falls and in Eisenhower State Park near Denison Dam.

John Edwards, representing an Oklahoma-Texas investment banking firm, said he is ready to purchase revenue bonds which would provide financing for the projects.

Opposed to the projects is Representative Jack Fisk of Wharton, who thinks that state-owned lodges would be contrary to private enterprise.

"I am going to fight it every way I can," said Fisk.

Texas prison system is in a position to make a million dollars profit in the year ending August 31, 1954.

During that year the system will take in an estimated $2,100,000 from cotton production, $125,000 from the manufacture of license plates, and $75,000 from other sources. Legislative appropriation is $901,266.

It is something unheard of, said French Robertson of Abilene.

chairman of the prison system, for such a profit to be shown, and "now we can make countless improvements of a permanent nature with our money."

Weldon Hart, chairman of the Texas Employment Commission, told something of that agency's work in a speech here.

The commission, Hart said, has 82 local offices over the state, and 12 district offices. It hires from 1,400 to 1,500 persons.

For the week ending September 3 the commission received 30,639 claims for unemployment compensation and paid 12,088 claimants a total of $209,265.

And during August the commission placed 156,199 workers on jobs.

AROUND THE capitol, there was little doubt that Ralph Yarborough, who ran for governor last time, would try it again.

In Chicago for the Democratic Party's national conference, as a guest of National Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell, Yarborough said he didn't know whether he would be a candidate. But, added:

"Immediately after the primary election last year, I began getting letters urging me to run again. And after Governor Shivers turned Republican last Fall, the number of such letters increased."

That sounded very much like a man who only needed a little encouragement.

"We've had committees studying water for four years, and now the Rio Grande has gone dry." So said a member of the last Legislature, when new water laws were being considered. Last week a new committee, created by that Legislature, went to work.

Members agreed that the problem was serious. Some comment: Governor Allan Shivers: "I can't emphasize too much the necessity of solving our water problems." Senator John J. Bell of Cuero: "Next to war and peace, water is the biggest problem facing Texas today."

Representative John Kimbrough of Haskell: "800 million feet ran down Texas streams last year, but only 10 million acre feet were put to use."

For the biggest problem facing Texas today, after war and peace, the Legislature appropriated $10,000.

BUT THERE was hope. Not just one committee, but three, were concerned with the water problem.

That created by the last Legislature, and mentioned above, is known as the Water Resources Committee.

There is a Water Pollution Advisory Council, also created by the last Legislature.

There is also a committee of 100, appointed by Governor Shivers and headed by J. B. Thomas of Fort Worth.

Governor Shivers asked this committee to continue its work.

As these committees toiled, 48 Texas counties remained on the disaster relief list, eligible for federal aid.

Texas led all the states in drought loans, according to R. B. McLeish, head of the Farmers Home Administration in Washington.

There were 283 loans to ranchers and farmers, totaling $3,500,980, and there were 92 applications pending for $1,603,825.

Even so, the administration's drought relief program was one of "political chicanery," said Texas Commissioner of Agriculture John C. White.

"When we needed hay, we were offered government surpluses of feed concentrates," the commissioner declared in a speech at Corsicana. He added that the concentrates were useless without hay roughage.

As the governor deliberated about calling a special session of the Legislature in October, the drought emergency diminished by virtue of rains over the state.

And there was still a lack of progress with the teachers about an agreement on increasing their pay — another question that would come before the session.

Reductions in oil allowances cut down on the prospects that there would be money in the treasury to give the pedagogues more money.

Their best chance seemed to be in the gas gathering tax, now being contested in the U. S. Supreme Court.

Now being collected and held, pending outcome of the suit, the tax brings in about $1 million a month.

Should the court decide for the state in this case, there would be money for the teachers, if the Legislature appropriated it to them.

SHORT SNORTS: James P. Hart, Chancellor of the University of Texas for the past three years, has resigned to return to law practice. His resignation becomes effective Jan. 1. Hart is a former associate justice of the State Supreme Court. . . . Counties now have the right to deal with cities for rural fire protection, according to a ruling of the attorney general.

Judge Bruce W. Bryant and C. K. Richards were honored upon their retirement from the attorney general's department. . . . Sen. Jimmy Phillips of Angleton was governor for a day when, as president pro tem of the Senate, he took over when both Governor Shivers and Lieutenant Governor Ben Ramsey were out of the State.

Dr. J. D. Copeland of San Antonio is the new chairman of the State Board of Health, replacing Dr. O. B. Kiel of Wichita Falls. The elections took place at a quarterly meeting of the board.

Also chosen were Dr. George Turner of El Paso, vice chairman, and J. P. Burden of San Angelo, secretary (re-elected). . . . Emmanuel Coutlakis has taken to the Texas Supreme Court his effort to get a union labor organizer's card

His application was rejected by Secretary of State Howard Caney because Coutlakis' International Fur and Leather Workers Union has been called, by federal investigators, communist-dominated.

Abstract and Title Business Subject of Classification Talk

A. B. Duncan gave a classification talk at the Canyon Rotary Club meeting Tuesday on abstracts and titles.

Few people know the real means of an abstract, according to the speaker. All court proceedings are given in full in the abstracts, but deeds and other standard transactions are abbreviated.

A federal judgment is a lien upon all property which the defendant may own, including personal, and never expires. In other words, those who owe the federal government must pay.

The abstractor is liable for any omissions of delinquent taxes which may be omitted from the abstract.

One of the big headaches of the abstractor is the change of names of individuals who sign papers. They should always sign their names the same.

Visitors were: Luther Hagard of Canyon; Geo. Williams of California; Bill Palmer of Childress; Clyde Fingle, Stan Buttkner, Leonard Showell, Wood Jackson, Arthur Blumh, John Oakes, Van Allm, C. W. Seibel, Joe C. Rogers, Oran Thomas, all of Amarillo.

Lt. and Mrs. Sandy Oliver left today for his new assignment in the Army at Shreveport, La., after spending a 10 days furlough in the homes of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Oliver and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kimbrough.

Mrs. Olga Seales has returned from a three week vacation spent in Los Angeles, Redlands, Visalia, Fresno, and Eureka, Calif., visiting with relatives.

Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Helmick and daughter of Spiro, Okla., visited Tuesday night and Wednesday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dowd. They were enroute home from the West Coast where they have spent a two weeks vacation.

Plan New Scout Troop For Area

Jack Jennings, chairman of the Randall County District Scout committee, said the American Legion may help the Scouts organize a new troop for this area.

American Legion will discuss the forming of the new troop and decide whether or not they can go ahead with action when they meet again the first Monday in October.

Friday and Saturday a two day Scout Camporee is to be held on the West Texas State College campus. The Camporee is being sponsored by Canyon's Troop 66. Several hundred Scouts have been invited and are expected to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Warwick drove to Lubbock Saturday morning where he was called as a witness in district court in a case between two South Plains publishers regarding the cost of printing a newspaper.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Burrus, Mrs. Gladys Haines and Miss Virgie Haines left Saturday morning to attend the 50th wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ritchey in Ft. Worth.

Churchill and Eden Have About Reached the End of Usefulness

Despite Winston Churchill's announcement that he and Anthony Eden would retain their posts as Prime Minister and Foreign Secretary, the prevailing belief among many diplomats is that the two cannot last long at these strenuous jobs.

While Washington statesmen and diplomats may not have all the answers, it is generally accepted in the national capital that Churchill must soon step down.

The venerable Prime Minister now has England back on its financial feet. Gold is returning to London and a favorable trade balance has been established at last. The old warrior has also checked the headlong flight to socialism, and rationing is just now beginning to end.

From these standpoints, then, the present time is a good one for Churchill to bow out of public life.

But when Churchill does that, he must have a healthy Anthony Eden to take his place. At least that has been his wish all along. Eden, however, is not fully recovered from his recent operation in the United States. His slow recovery is causing speculation and comment in London.

There are those who say the Churchill-Eden team is about finished, from a purely physical standpoint, that both men badly need a long rest — out of public office. Eden is presently resting in Greece.

R. A. Butler is the most talked successor to Churchill, should Eden fail to recover his health. But Churchill's announcement, earlier this month, indicates that he intends to try holding the reins once again.

Winnie doesn't give up easily, and he seems determined to carry the ball a while longer. While most of the world expected him to announce a major cabinet shake-up, the Prime Minister merely announced several new cabinet assignments and resignations.

He said he would retain his posts and Eden his. Both mean grueling responsibilities, and when Mr. Eden will return to London is not known. But the staunch Conservative team of Churchill and Eden which has stuck together since the appeasing days of the thirties, is not yet separated and it seems that the two English statesmen are determined to give high public office another whirl.

It might be a good bet to say that this will be their last full year of office, as a team, nevertheless.

RECORD TRAFFIC OFFENDER

Chicago. — Fines totaling more than $5,000 were assessed recently against Jerry Levenson, alias L. J. Borwen, 27, a Negro, on 71 traffic violations, most of them speeding. Police had hunted for Levenson for more than a year but he had eluded them by changing homes and jobs frequently. The judge said that the highest fines previously imposed in this country for traffic violations were in New York City, one for $4,400 and another for $3,300.

PERSISTENT FOSSIL-FINDER

Lewistown, Mont. — After six years of trying to interest friends in an unusual rock formation nearby, Perry Martin, of Stanford, finally convinced them that the formation along the railroad tracks was worthy of investigation. They dug at the place pointed out by Martin and unearthed part of a dinosaur. Its bones were petrified and resembled ordinary rocks.

Visit Traffic Court as Judge

Have you ever been a visitor at your local traffic court? What was your impression? Did you leave with the thought that you had just seen an efficient, just, and courteous court in action?

Probably we have all seen examples of both the good and bad, but the question is, what did you think about your court? What did you do about it? Our State has some of the best traffic courts in the country, and it also has some of the worst. Did you ever stop to think just what makes the difference between the two? You and others like you can make the difference. How? Simply by cooperating and working with the judge and the programs carried on by the court.

THIS COUNTRY was founded on the principle that the will of the people shall govern the land. It is still that way. Many of the difficulties in our country were brought about as a result of apathy and a lack of interest on the part of the public. The traffic court problem is a prime example of this.

If you were to pick out the best traffic courts in Texas, you would find, without exception, that these courts, their policies, and their programs have the wholehearted active cooperation of the citizens in their community. The Texas Safety Association says a traffic court or any other court can be nothing more or less than an expression of the will of the people. The punishment of a crime or violation is not the job of the police officer. His job is to apprehend the violator and present him in court to answer to the will of the citizens — your will!

How many times have you heard someone cry "why don't they do something about drunk driving?" And yet when that man is called upon for jury duty, did he serve willingly, or did he try to get out of this duty with some flimsy excuse? It seems that people have forgotten that a judge can do nothing more or less than the people want him to do. In a violation as serious as drunken driving, it is the jury rather than the judge, who decides if the defendant is guilty or not guilty.

The Texas Safety Association points out that the result of the entire traffic safety effort of the enforcement agencies depends upon the attitude with which a violator accepts the punishment placed upon him by the court. It is not likely that a violator who is taken into a dirty, dingy, and ill equipped courtroom, subjected to an informal and lax court procedure, and fined, will come out of the experience with a feeling of wanting to be a better citizen and driver. If a violator does not have a respect for the court, then the work and expense of bringing him before it was wasted.

WHAT CAN be done about it? You can do the same thing that the citizens did in Texas cities which are fortunate enough to have a good, modern traffic court system — actively support your judge

OUR DEMOCRACY — by Mat

— BIG, TOUGH AND ABLE —

NO JOB IS TOO BIG OR TOO TOUGH FOR THE COMBINATION OF SKILLED LABOR, EXPERIENCED MANAGEMENT AND MODERN PLANTS ON WHICH AMERICA'S PRODUCTIVE POWER RESTS. BUT THE EFFECTIVE UTILIZATION OF THIS POWER, YEAR IN AND YEAR OUT, DEPENDS ON MANY THINGS: A SOUND DOLLAR, FOR EXAMPLE, TO PROVIDE A STABLE MEDIUM OF EXCHANGE — AND OUTPUT CLOSELY GEARED TO PUBLIC DESIRES.

AMERICAN INDUSTRY REQUIRES, TOO, A CONSTANT FLOW OF NEW CAPITAL FROM THE THRIFT AND SAVINGS OF THE PEOPLE IF AMERICA, PRODUCTIVELY, IS TO KEEP BIG, TOUGH, AND ABLE.

and your court. As an individual, you can offer your help to the judge; you can help to create a desire, on the part of the public, for efficient justice and court procedure, and a clean, well kept, modern courtroom and building. You can do your duty as a good citizen by willingly serving your call to jury duty.

If you are fortunate, and have a good traffic court in your city, let the judge know that you are proud of the work he has done. Continue to give him your support. He and the court must have it if they are to do a good job for YOU!!

Experience here in Texas has proven that a city can have a good traffic court system. It has also proven that a court's success or failure is determined by the support and attitude of the individual citizen. The choice is up to you — which do you want? You be the judge!!

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

A step toward preservation of American free enterprise was presidential signature of the Small Business Act. This sets up the Small Business Administration empowered to make loans to independent business.

The measure, supported by independent business leaders, was piloted through Congress by Senator Edward J. Thye, Minn., chairman of the Senate Small Business Committee. C. W. Harder, tee, and Rep. Wm. S. Hill, chairman of the House Small Business Committee.

By October, the Small Business Administration should be operating, making loans to small business needing development funds not available elsewhere.

In this new agency, the small business loan functions of the expiring RFC, and the Small Defense Plants Corporation function to help small plants get a fair share of the defense work contracts, have been combined.

SBA, although authorized by law to have a maximum of $275,000,000 outstanding in business loans at one time, is opening shop with $55,000,000.

While Congress realized need for assistance to small business, it is waiting to see success of SBA operation before allocating the entire legal limit of funds.

Therefore, the success of SBA will depend to a great extent on how actively small businessmen participate in the development of this new agency.

The need for a source of credit for small business was well established.

established during Congressional hearings and study.

Several facts were considered.

Among them was the fact that under tax laws, it is practically impossible for a business to lay aside enough reserves for expansion by the time honored method of setting aside a part of earnings. Usually, a small business gets to a point whereby it remains static, must sell out to a big company or perish.

While many private bankers would like to make more loans to independent business, they are handicapped by federal and local banking laws.

Administrator W. D. Mitchell announces he will work toward the eventual goal of small business loans being underwritten by private capital.

There is precedent.

Under FHA home financing, private capital is employed, with government insurance. The Federal Land Bank system, once heavily financed by the government, has become independent of government finance, and meets needs of farmers to an extent which laws do not permit conventional banks to go.

It is much too early to predict what direction the SBA will take. The important point is that government has recognized that first of all small business is vital to the nation; secondly that small business has finance problems requiring under present conditions, special attention beyond legal limitations of private banks.

Therefore, as with so many plans for progress set up in the frame work of a democracy, the success or failure of SBA will depend largely upon the extent to which independent business men work for its success.

Just Between You, Me . . . and the Gatepost . . .

One of the things deserving mention here is the wonderful football game that the Eagles played Friday night. One of the things that spikes these home football games considerably is the pleasant session in the press box with Rex Reeves. It was also nice Friday evening to have Coach R. D. Wheelock, West Texas Elementary School, in the box with us. Then from time to time we enjoy the visits of Mr. Miller and Joe Gibson, the principal and superintendent of the Canyon High School. Rex Reeves may not have enjoyed Friday night's session as much as the others in the press box. He had to buy the coffee, maybe by the time the next game is here, October 9, he will have forgotten buying coffee this time and do it again.

Saturday morning Charlie Donnell was working out the Sunday golf matches for the City Club tournament. The golfers in this vicinity sure enjoy tournaments and they have enough of them to keep the pot well flavored. Charlie Donnell may be responsible for that and that also may be one of the reasons Charlie was elected president of the City Club twice in succession; that is, the golf tournaments he's gotten up and the popularity of them.

Say, did you hear that B. F. Goodrich program Wednesday? It came from the Methodist Church where the Lions Club was having its weekly luncheon. Of course you wouldn't need to have anyone tell you that with all that roaring the Lions did. Next thing you know Lion Boss Truett McGregor will have his Lions on television.

This week is Tri-State Fair week in Amarillo and a lot of people will probably be going up to see what the other people in the community are doing. It's surprising how we can live so close to something and yet not really know about it until it is placed on exhibition. There will probably be a number of farm products on exhibit up there that will surprise 50 per cent of the people living in Canyon.

When you look at the part of the fair that portrays Randall County's developments, you should remember the work of County Agent John Brazzil. John has done a great deal of work getting the booth in condition and making the displays attractive. All year around he works in order that the objects on exhibition up there will be of good enough quality to place on the exhibit stand.

The men aren't the only ones with talent to provide fine looking exhibits. The work of the women of the county will also be on display. At least a part of the credit for their work must go to Home Demonstration Agent Lou Ella Patterson. Yes sir, fair time is a lot of work but it's also a revelation as to what our neighbors are doing.

One of the main topics of discussion about the square these days is the possibility of a city park. Kenny Goodman suggested that the public talk up the possibility of such a move and keep the ball rolling until there is sufficient interest to start some action. The Lions Club has a committee working on the move and the Chamber of Commerce is also working on it. The thing that seems to be lacking is enough public interest for a town meeting that could start things rolling for the realization of the park instead of the hopes for one. One way to get action is for a lot of people to get together and start swapping ideas, sooner or later someone will come up with the solution to our park problem.

A doctor asked the wife of one of his patients if her husband was taking the medicine he was supposed to religiously. The wife answered back, "He's taking it but not religiously, he curses every time I give it to him."

First co-ed boastfully: "I've been asked to get married lots of times." Second co-ed: "Who asked you?" First co-ed: "My father and mother."

Canyon Boy Is Tops Boys Ranch

Leroy Gazzaway, 13-year-old Boys Rancher from Canyon, stole the show from his younger brother, 11-year-old Ronnie, in the steer riding division of the ninth-annual Boys Ranch Rodeo staged in Amarillo recently.

Leroy took third place in the steer riding competition with a perfect ride. Ronnie was in there pitching but the steer pitched a little harder.

Following the rodeo the 187 Boys Ranchers returned the 40-miles to the ranch where they began the 1953 school year.

More than 6000 persons, near capacity crowds for Amarillo's Tri-State Fairgrounds grandstand, saw the ranchers display their rodeo skill during the two-day event. The Will Rogers Range Riders sponsored the two day show with the proceeds going into the Boys Ranch building fund.

David Gaunder, a 17-year-old Boys Ranch cowboy from Perryton, edged Jackie Key of Wichita Falls to win the best-all-around cowboy award for the second straight year.

Cal Farley, president and founder of Boys Ranch, was elated at the success of the rodeo. "This was the best show in the nine-year history of the rodeo," Farley exclaimed. "The kids put their hearts and souls into every ride. They did a marvelous job."

Other winners included: Bucking Shetland Pony — Billy Huckins, 11, Amarillo; Larry Finley, 12, Amarillo; and Larry Fry, 12, El Paso. Junior Calf Riding — John Gannis, 9, Nureberg, Germany; Carl Ingraham, 10, Amarillo; and Dewayne Temple, 10, Ralls, Steer Riding — Ray Schoonover, 14, Osborne, Idaho; Dick Shepherd, 13, Liberal, Kans.; and Leroy Gazzaway, 13, Canyon. Trick Riding — Elmer Miller, 16, Crosbyton; Delmer Miller (Elmer's twin brother); and Larry Trotter, 16, Amarillo.

Bull Riding — Norris Busby, 16, Hereford; Calvin Stapp, 17, Odessa; and Tommy Berry, 16, Canadian. Bronc Riding — David Caunder, 17, Perryton; Tommy Berry and Jimmy Gaunder, 17, Perryton.

"I had it custom built! At first he was resentful, but now he really likes it."

INDEPENDENCE

New titles for non-commissioned grades in the Air Force are apparently designed to mark the independence of the Air Force under unification.

GRAIN SPECULATION

Grain speculation: Gazing into the breakfast bowl, heaped with toasted, crunchy, sealed in goodness and wondering what the stuff was originally.

James H. Doolittle, Lt. Gen., U.S. Air Force, retired: "Quality is the decisive edge in the present race for superior aircraft and armaments."

Irving M. Ives, U. S. Senator from New York: "The cost of Government in our country has been turned definitely downward."

Omar N. Bradley, General, U.S.A. former chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff: "Soviet technical progress like ours, is moving at an ever faster tempo."

NEW OPPORTUNITY

General Eisenhower's example should encourage young Americans. Every boy has the opportunity to grow up and not be President if he doesn't want to.

THE MIDDLE

The "middle income" of American families last year was $2,920, the Federal Reserve Board reports. And the middle was what the fellow who earned it sure was in.

Robert C. Hendrickson, U. S. Senator from New Jersey: "Juvenile delinquency doesn't appear to be confined to any particular area or to any particular size of city."

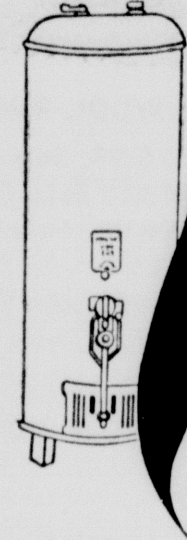

William F. Knowland, U. S. Senate Majority leader: "The free world cannot afford any more Munichs."

Albert Mickelberg, corporal, returned American war prisoner: "North Koreans mistreated you physically. The Chinese mistreat you mentally."

Every 3 days a new diesel joins the Santa Fe fleet !

A 10-year record of "building new" on the Santa Fe

Christened with California champagne, Santa Fe's first multiple-unit diesel locomotive rolled out of Chicago on Tuesday, May 12, 1936.

It powered the first Super Chief.

39 3/4 hours later it rolled into Los Angeles — and the new age in railroading was born.

There were 3600 "horses" in that one.

Five years later, the first multiple-unit freight diesel rolled on Santa Fe rails.

There were 5400 "horses" in that one.

Today, there is more than 2,100,000 diesel horsepower on the Santa Fe — 1524 mighty diesel units.

From 1943 through 1952, a total of 1261 diesel units were placed in service. Better than one every 3 days for a 10-year record!

And still they come! 222 in 1953!

Every diesel added, every mile of heavier rail, makes America's New Railroad a little more completely new. Why, enough new rail has been laid on the Santa Fe in the last seven years alone to reach from Chicago to Los Angeles!

All new — but always the old pride that all this building new costs you, the taxpayer, not one tax penny.

Bufs Drop First Game of Season To Tech 40-14

At least the West Texas State College Buffaloes led the Texas Tech Red Raiders by 7 points during the first 4½ minutes of Saturday night's opener. The Buffs also pushed the pigskin over for another score during the waning minutes of the game to end the play with 14 points while the Red Raiders had tallied 40.

After the opening score the Buffaloes ran into trouble and bad luck. Walden fumbled on his own 30-yard line and the Raiders recovered. Four plays later Raider Lewis carried the ball over for Tech. The conversion was made and the score was then tied at 7-7. The second Tech score was also the result of a fumble by West Texas and some fast, powerful ball carrying by the Raiders.

The Red Raiders kept the initiative during the game, but did give up one more touchdown to the Buffs when there were less than three minutes to play. When Joe Walden carried the second Buffalo touchdown the score stood at 34 for Tech and 14 for the Buffaloes but the Raiders were not finished. They got their revenge by one more touchdown but could not convert and the final score was 40-14.

The next Buffalo game will be played in Buffalo Stadium Saturday night with McMurtry and will be the second of a ten game season schedule by the Buffs.

improves afternoon class work and general behavior. Whether a child buys his lunch at school, eats in at home or takes his lunch with him it should contain at least one third of the days food requirement.

Lunch time at school can be a pleasant, social experience for the children. If the child is going to school for the first time, or if he is going to a new school, the teacher can help him get acquainted and find a friend to sit next to, so that he does not feel out of place and uncomfortable at the lunch table.

Good health habits can be taught during lunch time at school. The children should be trained to wash their hands before eating; also encouraged to take plenty of time eating and not gulp their food down so they can rush out and play. The mother should do the same when the child eats at home.

A metal box or pail makes the best lunch container. It should be washed and scalded daily and aired overnight. The thermos bottle will stay sanitary and sweet smelling if it is rinsed with soda water after a thorough washing. Interesting and varied lunches make eating a pleasure and helps the children be alert, eager and contented in school, because good foods build strong bodies and happy children.

Congressman Declares Germany Must Rearm To Make Nation Safe

Former Chairman of the Foreign Affairs Committee James P. Richards says it will be a year or two before the results of the recent German elections will be felt in the European Defense Community. But he nevertheless describes the recent victory of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer as "one of the greatest things to happen in Europe recently."

Congressman Richards, who is one of the five members of the U. S. delegation to the United Nations Assembly, believes German participation in the EDC defense plan is necessary for success.

cess.

He describes EDC as having been "about dead" in Europe just prior to the German elections. The Adenauer triumph may revive it, he predicts.

In an exclusive interview with this newspaper's Washington correspondent, Richards pointed out that France now becomes the key to EDC success.

Heretofore, France feared German rearmament to such an extent that she was reluctant to agree to any European Defense Community program which included German participation, and thus at least partial German rearmament.

"I hope France will fall in line now, for she should certainly see that it's better to have a rearmament Germany within the framework of the European Defense Community than without."

"Germany and The Netherlands are the only countries to fall in line the defense agreement so far but we are now hopeful that others will follow," Richards said.

The ranking Democratic member of the Foreign Affairs committee says Adenauer's election shows the German people to be overwhelmingly in favor of alliance with the West. "While we knew Adenauer was in favor of such a policy, he had to get a mandate from the people before that policy could be vigorously carried out. He now has the mandate, and the vote was a major rebuff to the Communists," Richards asserted.

He said most top American leaders admitted that German cooperation in the defense of unity was absolutely essential for success, and listed President Dwight D. Eisenhower, General Alfred Gruenther, Supreme Commander of NATO, and Army Chief of Staff Matthew Ridgway as of that belief.

He said he personally felt that, in time, the Germans, rearmed, could handle an attack from Russia alone.

Dairy Association Hopes to Increase Milk Consumption

A radio program sponsored by Texas dairymen and featuring Bob Hope will be on KGNC Friday nights from 7:30 to 8 p. m. beginning Sept. 25, the American Dairy Association of Texas announced this week. The program will be aired on a national hook-up covering 30 states.

The program is a part of a national campaign, sponsored by milk producers, to increase the consumption of milk and is made possible by a penny set-aside plan to which 60 per cent of all Texas dairymen are contributing. The dairymen hope to build a bigger market for milk and dairy products. Sam E. von Rosenberg, state ADA manager, said.

The national ADA recently expanded its activities with the goal of convincing the public it should drink at least three glasses of milk a day. The over-all program calls for newspaper advertising as well as radio and TV programs.

In launching the milk educational series, ADA officials said they arranged to get one of the nation's top comedians and one of the most popular programs—the Bob Hope Show—to reach as wide an audience as possible.

An increase in the consumption of milk will be of great economic benefit to the dairy producing counties of Texas, von Rosenberg said.

Canyon Eagles Scratch Panhandle Panthers 20-19 in Football Thriller

Coach Guy Harrison's Eagles won their second game in two starts Friday night by a score of 20-19 over the Panhandle Panthers in Buffalo Stadium before approximately 1,000 fans. The night was perfect for football and the fans really got their money's worth in a football thriller that won't soon be forgotten by those who witnessed the game.

Both teams scored in the first quarter of the game. The Panther touchdown came as Roselius passed to Mitchell. Cummings converted to make the score move up to 7. Canyon got two touchdowns in the first quarter and converted both times. Jamie Airhart carried the Eagles' first TD and also converted.

R. A. Burgess scampered 40 yards for the second Eagle TD and once again Airhart's toe was true, and the conversion moved the score up to 14 for the Eagles and 7 for the Panthers.

Coming out after the first quarter were the Panthers with a tight defense and a shrewd offense. Roselius tossed a jump pass to Axe and the Panthers scored again, but could not convert. The score was 14-13 in favor of the Eagles at the half.

Panhandle scored in the third quarter with Cummings running the ball nine yards around his right end for the touchdown. Once again the jinx kept the Panther eleven from converting. Midway in the fourth quarter the Canyon followers were getting worried as play after play failed to penetrate the tightened defense of the Panther team. Panhandle started back down the field with three minutes left in the game when Don Beck intercepted a pass intended for Axe from Roselius.

With time running out, the Eagle squad got Beck loose on the right side of the line and he raced 50 yards for the winning TD. The extra point was wide.

Toll Highways Are On the Increase

Pay-as-you-go highways, better known as toll roads, are becoming more and more popular in this country. The reasons: the big increase in autos and the unexpectedly high receipts from existing toll roads.

Passenger car registrations this year will total 45 million—an all-time record—according to the Bureau of Public Roads. (Registration for 1946, the first postwar year, was only 20 million.) Actual revenues from tolls on the famed New Jersey Turnpike for 1952 were $17,829,636 or 90 per cent above estimates of $9,394,000. Pennsylvania's Turnpike, a much older highway, ran 15 per cent above estimated tolls in that year.

Increasing auto and truck registrations, together with the successful toll collections are among the reasons why 16 states last year either set up their first toll road authorities or planned to expand existing toll roads. New toll road construction, already underway, has been unofficially estimated at about 1,000 miles; the cost, $1.5 billion.

Exactly how large a part toll roads will play in solving the nation's major highway needs still is unknown. The Chamber of Commerce of the United States now is preparing studies on this and other highway problems in preparation for a National Highway Conference to be held here Dec. 8 and 9.

Building Boom On With Lift Control

There's a new building boom underway, says the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, and one big reason is the new freedom from government controls.

Money spent on new construction in 1953 will exceed any year on record, thus continuing to an unexpected peak the spectacular rise since the end of World War II. The total—$34.6 billion.

Two-thirds of this total, or $23 billion, will be spent for private construction; the remaining third, or $11.6 billion, on public construction. Both figures represent new highs.

Behind this upsurge, the Chamber says, is the old story of a free market. A year ago, construction was tightly controlled. Materials were allocated and their prices set by government. Private building was closely restricted. Wages (in theory) were controlled. So were credit and rent.

However, the incoming Administration proceeded to dismantle the controls program. Except for rent, the market was virtually free by the time spring building got well underway. Federal rent controls lingered until the end of July, then were ended in all but a few critical defense areas. With this new elbow room, and the assurance of Congress that controls would not arbitrarily be reimposed, builders surged ahead to set the new records.

$2.00 For Taxes; $1.00 Is Saved

The old saying "a dollar saved is a dollar earned" needs a bit of revision these days. According to Tax Facts, a publication of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, the American people are paying two dollars in personal taxes for every dollar they save.

Last year, for example, Americans paid $33.1 billion in federal, state and local personal taxes, while personal savings were only $16.9 billion, about half as much. The $33.1 billion sets a new record. It averages $1.98 a day for every family in the United States. And it does not include corporate and other business taxes.

Canada is worried by its huge wheat surplus.

DIVINING ROD ALOFT

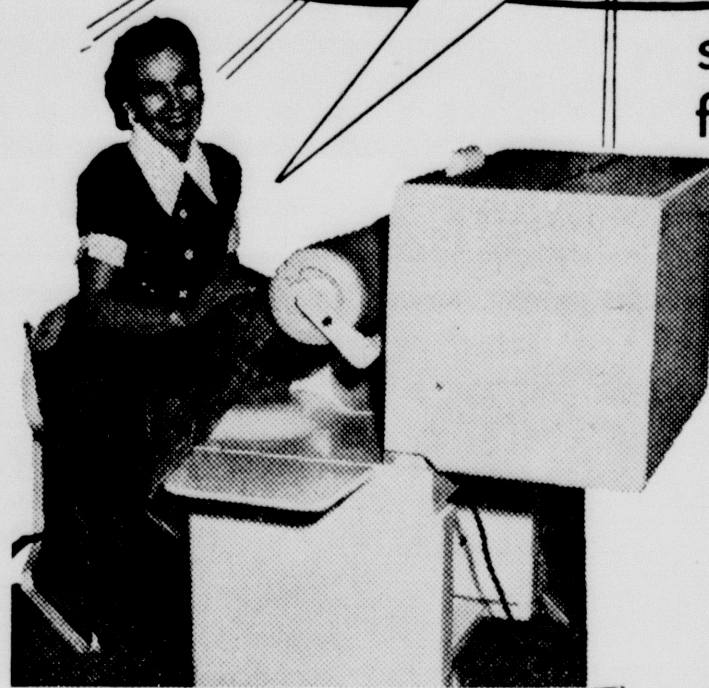

Washington, D. C. — The modern divining rod rides a plane these days, according to the National Geographic Society, which points out that with camera, magnetometer or radar, aerial explorers can locate underground water and metallic ores, assay quarries, count the trees in a forest and accurately measure the height of a mountain or a mole-hill.
